

- drills for 'Kirk Jones'

- drill 1: backwards expansion

- in his life.
    - accomplished anything important in his life.
    - had a career or accomplished anything important in his life.
    - he'd never married or had a career or accomplished anything important in his life.
    - felt insignificant because he'd never married or had a career or accomplished anything important in his life.
    - Kirk had always felt insignificant because he'd never married or had a career or accomplished anything important in his life.

- drill 2: replacement

- He was the first person ever to go over Niagara Falls without being killed.

- sneak into that building ... without being caught
      - drink that much ... without getting sick
      - sleep that long ... without waking up
      - run so far ... without stopping once
      - jump over three cars ... without getting hurt

- drill 3: replacement

- Before separating, they decided to take a last trip together.

- eating ... to have a drink
      - going to school ... to have a cup of coffee
      - telling their friends ... to think about it some more
      - signing the contract ... to talk to a lawyer
      - getting married ... to save some money