

gabriela byrne: multiple choice questions

CHOOSE THE BEST WAY TO COMPLETE EACH OF THE FOLLOWING:

- (1) On the day Gabriela returned to gambling, when she finally got home she
  - (a) phoned her husband and screamed at him
  - (b) lay down on the kitchen floor and prayed
  - (c) tried to kill herself with a kitchen knife
  - (d) knelt on the kitchen floor and prayed

- (2) Gabriela and her husband tried to prevent Gabriela from gambling by
  - (a) asking the casinos not to let Gabriela in
  - (b) going to church more regularly and praying for help
  - (c) finding Gabriela a job selling cosmetics in the evenings
  - (d) preventing Gabriela from taking money out of the bank

- (3) After a year of counselling by her minister, Gabriela
  - (a) felt no urge to gamble
  - (b) felt a reduced urge to gamble
  - (c) felt an even greater urge to gamble
  - (d) felt the same urge to gamble as before

- (4) The first day Gabriela played the pokies:
  - (a) she had decided to quit her job and needed extra money
  - (b) a friend had told her about how much money you could win
  - (c) she enjoyed watching the flashing lights while she ate her lunch
  - (d) she had spent the morning looking for a present for her children

- (5) After she finally stopped gambling for good, Gabriela
  - (a) became a church minister
  - (b) became active in the anti-gambling movement
  - (c) became a high school teacher
  - (d) became a member of the Australian government

- (6) Gabriela joined a group of compulsive gamblers who
- (a) operated their own casino at a secret location
  - (b) attempted to help each other control their habit
  - (c) went to the pokies with one another after their meetings
  - (d) invited church ministers to talk to them
- (7) On the day Gabriela returned to gambling she left the pub and went to a casino
- (a) because she didn't have any more money
  - (b) because she was afraid her sister-in-law would find her
  - (c) because the jackpots at the pub weren't big enough
  - (d) because she was too well known in the pub
- (8) When Gabriela went to a pub after shopping for a present she
- (a) thought she might gamble a little
  - (b) was sure she wasn't going to gamble at all
  - (c) knew she was going to spend the rest of the day gambling
  - (d) was testing herself